MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS. On Sunday last a young man named Cox, jumped from the deck of a steamer head foremost into the water at Coney Island, N. Y .-On coming to the surface he remained motionless, which attracted the attention of several persons on board, who secured the body and drew it on shore. It appears that the water was only seven feet in depth, and Cox, striking his head with full force upon the sandy bot- trained upon for non payment of taxes. tom, disolated his neck, causing instant death.

The Springfield Republican says Miss Houghton, of North Adams, who was lately mixed up in the Rev. S. M. Merrill scandal, has written the gentleman, since his pretended drowning at Plattsburg, telling him that it is now his duty to leave his family and share his fortunes with her, even if they have to go to the ends of the earth.
